

- MSc Programme in Protected Area Management, University of Klagenfurt

MSc Programme in Protected Area Management, University of Klagenfurt

The MSc programme 'Management of Protected Areas' is an outstanding and innovative educational offer intended for managers and planners of Protected Areas. There are limited funds available for students from low-income Central and Eastern European countries and from developing countries. Qualified female students are particularly encouraged to apply.

More>>

Deadline for submission of materials is June 30, 2009, applications for scholarships for students of developing countries is December 1, 2008

www.tropical-biology.org (1 Sept 2008)